13-F-1161	Sile, Elizabeth	Esquire Magazine	PAL	7/25/2013	9/4/2013	I work for Esquire Magazine, and as part of a big photo project for our 80th anniversary, we're looking at the impact of war on the 25 year old man. In the issue, we're photographing one man at every age from 1-80. The man we're photographing for 25 is a disabled veteran of the Iraq War, so we're hoping to put together an infographic on war and the 25 year old. Our initial research online hasn't gotten us very far, so we were wondering if the DoD might have any data that could help us. I saw some data referenced your work in the DoD's 2011 Demographics Report, but a lot of the data was too old for our use. Like I said, we're looking at 25 year olds (born in 1988), but we'll take any information you may have on millenials and young people. We are looking to highlight the sacrifices these young men have made for their country, and looking for any data that could help us show those born in 1988 who've been killed; wounded; still in active service; ever in active service; diagnosed with PTSD; etc., that could help us. If there is anything you might be able to direct us to or gather, we would really appreciate it. Please feel free to call me at your earliest convenience or email me if you have any questions. Thank you in advance, Elizabeth Sile Editorial Assistant Esquire Magazine 212.649.4146 esile@ hearst.com

13-F-1412	Wright, Charles	-	PAL	9/19/2013	-	I have been reading the books written by Army Lt. Col. Donn R. de Grand-Pre, 1926-2009. He worked at the Pentagon when he was an arms dealer. Have you heard of the 3 day meeting Lt.Col. Donn de Grand-Pre had shortly after the 911 event with military and commercial pilots and the report he sent to the Pentagon? I am trying to find a place where I can download [or get a hardcopy] of the 24 page report that Lt. Col. Donn R. de Grand-Pre sent to the JCS at the Pentagon in 2002. DGP: Okay, Alex, the group of pilots and they will remain anonymous were a wonderful mix of commercial, military and civilian pilots. At any rate, after three days, the decisions were unanimous. And I wrote my 24-page report up and submitted it to the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs. And that report ultimately got into the hands of the Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs on 23 January, 2002. The General was U.S. Marine Corp General by the name Peter Pace. And I got a telephone call, 5 March, from one of his horse holders, who is a Colonel Air Force type. He informed me that Gen. Peter Pace had gotten the twenty-four pages and that he and his Sec. had no comment at this time but he used the old Marine Corp lingo, "Semper Fi" or Always Faithful, and we let it go at that. Later on I continued my correspondence with the Vice Chairman and most recently, I got a letter 8 November, 2003 from Peter Pace, to me, carrying on not only about the investigation but about the three books that I have written since that time. Alex Jones Radio Show, Feb. 25, 2004, 1:40-hour interview http://www.prisonplanet.com/022904degrand.html --- In earlier interviews, de Grand-Pre has recounted that the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs, Gen. Richard Myers, had 500 copies of the 24-page report made and sent out, including, to the White House.
